As someone w/ ASD I'm torn on this but I remember in high school this normal kid got his poster board for final project ripped up by special education student & he reacted by saying "DURRR what did you rip that up for dude" and got ISS for a whole week that was incredibly unfair

I don't think we should get mad at children when they laugh or make fun of mentally handicapped ppl(down syndrome, ret*rded, etc.) it's a natural reaction they cant help it. Taking advantage of them and being rude to them is one thing..but they aren't meant to be living among us

Chadwick Moore @Chadwick_Moore

I'm sorry, but when Kimmie smugly tried to call a young male MAGA kid an incel—that was not good. That was horrible. These people are supposed to be heroes and figureheads of the Trump movement. They clearly need better, more tuned-in, advisors.

you will never face discrimination for being white. you'll never be passed up on a job for being white. no one will ever racially profile you for being white. a cop won't kill you for being white. white privilege is real, it exists. acknowledge it.

Hey there! What's your favorite thing to do on Saturday?

Today

I shitpost on an anime inspired fitness image board

Lol like you say bad things on a website?

For example: People will ask slightly fitness related questions using the picture of an attractive woman to bring eyes to their thread and I will accuse them of having burnt out catecholamine reward processes or Israeli special intelligence forces purposefully trying to demoralize populations of other countries

September 17, 2019 at 9:58 AM

After careful consideration, my sister Angel and I regret that we were required to seek a restraining order against our brother Aaron today. In light of Aaron's increasingly alarming behavior and his recent confession that he harbors thoughts and intentions of killing my pregnant wife and unborn child, we were left with no choice but to take every measure possible to protect ourselves and our family. We love our brother and truly hope he gets the proper treatment he needs before any harm comes to himself or anyone else.

After spending two weeks in an induced coma to try and reduce swelling to the brain, Piana died on August 25, 2017, at the age of 46. An autopsy revealed "significant heart disease" and that his heart and liver weighed over twice the average amount for an adult male.

😞 how did you guys have time to lift at college

going to be joining college next month

eating all the food for the day alone probably takes about 2 hours its not so much the time spent in the gym, but also the fact that college dorms are so loud, i doubt you can get any sleep at all with all the partying is it even worth paying for membership and all that food to make almost no progress?

Goku should've stayed dead and Gohan should've faced Kid Buu or ended Super Buu. The Kid Buu ending with the spirit bomb was good and climactic but I was so freaking tired from all the twists and turns and how much it got f*cked up that I didn't enjoy it my nipples are a little puffy, I'll put on an ice pack while doing my stomach vacuums. I can do a thousand now. After I remove the ice pack I use two scoops of a deep pore cleanser lotion. In the shower I use four scoops of whey isolate, then ten scoops of creatine monohydrate, and after my shower eighteen scoops of mutant mass. Then I inject twenty scoops of Real Food directly into my intestines which I leave to digest for ten minutes while I prepare my synthol injections. I always use a synthol solution with little or no alcohol, because alcohol dries your muscles out and makes you look older. Then HGH, then test, tren, mast, deca, equipoise, npp followed by d-ball, winny, superdrol, and finally a shot of HCG. There is an idea of a Rich Piana.
